XV Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mk 6:7-13

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick— no food, no sack, no money in their belts. They were, however, to wear sandals but not a second tunic. He said to them, “Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them.” So they went off and preached repentance. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

We ask our parishioners again (as we have in the past) to donate any of the following items or our parish Carnival and Summer Fest. Your support has been tremendous in the past! Can we count on your generosity again? Monetary donations are also greatly appreciated.

- Cases of canned soda (Coke, Pepsi, 7-up)
- Cases of water
- Small bags of chips, etc.
- Plastic ware

These items can be dropped off at the rectory during office hours..

Saint Camillus de Lellis

Feast day July 18

If not for St. Camillus de Lellis and his passion for helping the sick and dying, the red cross may not have become associated with such compassionate service to those in need. However, before he began caring for others, Camillus’s life was anything but saintly. He was born in Italy in 1550 to a mother who was almost 60 years old and his father, a soldier who loved to fight, was a persistent drinker and gambler who was rarely at home. Unfortunately for Camillus’s mother, her son was not easy to manage on her own. He was lazy, despised school which he frequently skipped, and had a fierce temper. His mother died when he was only thirteen and a few years later, Camillus left school and teamed up as a nomadic soldier with his father whose appetite for gambling quickly rubbed off on his son. Together, they were ejected from one army camp after another for excessive gambling and fighting. Eventually, Camillus’s father fell deathly ill and, overcome with shame for his lifestyle, he received the Sacrament of Last Rites just before he died. Shaken by the whole ordeal, Camillus decided that in order to mend his own ways he would become a Franciscan. The Order he approached, however, would not accept him because of an open wound on his leg that refused to heal. Camillus returned to his waywardness and eventually found himself in Rome where he began to work as a servant at San Giacomo (St. James) hospital in exchange for medical treatment for his leg. This arrangement worked well until he began teaching the other servants how to gamble which led to fighting. As a result, the hospital put Camillus back on the streets. He then joined the Venetian army but after being dismissed on account of his temper, he found himself gambling and losing everything he had, right down to his boots. At 24 years old, he came upon a monastery being built and enrolled as a laborer. For a second time, he gained admittance to a Franciscan monastery but was once again rejected due to his leg wound. Camillus returned to San Giacomo hospital in Rome where he was given a second chance. After four years, Camillus’s leg appeared to be healed and he returned to the Franciscan monastery where he was again received. It wasn’t long, however, before his wound reopened and the Franciscans discharged him, this time urging him to give up hope. He returned to San Giacomo where he was welcomed back and employed as superintendent. He realized in this role that it was only when administering to patients out of love that nurses provided adequate treatment and he made it his goal to raise the standard of care. In deciding that the field should include not only laymen but also priests, he realized he was being called to the priesthood. He was ordained in 1584 and recruited a group of both priests and laymen, who went about caring for the sick and dying on the streets. They distinguished themselves by wearing red crosses on their clothing. Camillus’ organization spread throughout Italy and by the time of his death in 1614, he had founded more than 30 hospitals. He was canonized in 1746 by Pope Benedict XIV. See the referenced source on the Order of St. Camillus.

XV Domingo ordinario

Mc 6,7-13

En aquel tiempo, llamó Jesús a los Doce, los envió de dos en dos y les dio poder sobre los espíritus inmundos. Les mandó que no llevaran nada para el camino: ni pan, ni mochila, ni dinero en el cinto, sino únicamente un bastón, sandalias y una sola túnica. Y les dijo: “Cuando entren en una casa, quédense en ella hasta que se vayan de ese lugar. Si en alguna parte no los reciben ni los escuchan, al abandonar ese lugar, sacúdanse el polvo de los pies, como una advertencia para ellos”. Los discípulos se fueron a predicar el arrepentimiento. Expulsaban a los demonios, ungían con aceite a los enfermos y los curaban.

Dame, Señor, mano firme y mirada vigilante, para que mientras conduzco, no cause daño a nadie. A ti, Señor, que das la vida y la conservas, te suplico humildemente que guardes hoy la mía. Libra, Señor, a quienes me acompañan de todo mal, enfermedad, incendio o accidente. Enséñame a hacer uso de mi coche para remedio de las necesidades ajenas. Haz, Señor, que no me arrastre el vértigo de la velocidad, y que, admirando la belleza de este mundo, logre seguir y terminar felizmente mi camino. Te lo pido, Señor, por los méritos de tu Santísima Madre, la Virgen del Camino, y por la intercesión de San Cristóbal, especial protector de los conductores. Amén

XV Niedziela zwykła Mk 6, 7-13

Jeżus przywołał do siebie Dwunastu i zaczął rozsyłać ich po dwóch. Dał im też władzę nad duchami nieczystymi i przykazał im, żeby nic z sobą nie brali na drogę prócz laski: ani chleba, ani torby, ani pieniędzy w trzosie. «Ale idźcie obuci w sandały i nie wdziejajcie dwóch sukien!» I mówił do nich: «Gdy do jakiegoś domu wejdziecie, zostańcie tam, aż stamtąd wyjdziecie. Jeśli w jakimś miejscu was nie przyjmą i nie będą was słuchać, wychodząc stamtąd, strząśnijcie proch z nóg waszych na świadectwo dla nich!» Oni więc wyszli i wzywali do nawracania się. Wyrzucali też wiele złych duchów, a wielu chorych namaszczaoli olejem i uzdrawiali.

GIVE A LITTLE HELP A LOT

“And He called His disciples together and said to them, ‘Amen I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who have been putting money into the treasury. For they all have put in out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in all that she had – all that she had to live on.’” – (Mark 12:43-44)
